

LOCAL DOINGS IN TABLOID FORM

William Cheney Ellis sentenced for murder of wife. Motion for new trial withdrawn. Judge Petit scored Dr. Hogan's testimony and said he should be withdrawn from county's service.

Mrs. Frank Costella, 1140 Sherman av., Evanston, swallowed 100 grains of bichloride of mercury. Despondent. Condition critical.

Miss Delight Barsch, former opera singer, to be subpoenaed in Rickett art failure.

Boy bandits captured after pistol chase. Joseph Samanski, 16, fatally wounded, and Peter Klaski, 15, 2025 Frankfort st., and Joseph Michaels, 14, 2432 Elston av., arrested.

Ice wagon and street car collided in loop. W. C. Perry, 2044 Racine av., driver, internally injured.

Mrs. Mary Spencer, 6547 S. Marshfield av., fell on slippery walk. Right ankle broken.

Four boys taken as dope thieves. Raided John Wyeth & Brothers, 174 W. Lake st., for opium, cocaine and morphine.

Mrs. B. N. Reynolds, 648 N. Dearborn st., arrested. Alleged to have robbed Morris Mann of $25. Woman denies charge.

Girls dormitory, Cummock School of Oratory, Northwestern University, looted. $1,100 worth of stuff taken.

Helene Young wanted in California for forgery, allowed to remain with dying sister. Decision handed down by Judges O'Connor and Gibbons sitting en banc.

A. R. Dockstader, Detroit, met stranger. Matched pennies. Lost $175.

Mrs. Charlotte Condict claims hubby called her "mental dyspeptic" and tried to win away child. Charges desertion as basis of divorce suit.

Transportation building sold. Price $3,500,000. Louis W. Hill and Watson P. Davidson purchasers.

Rev. Alexander J. Gladstone Dowie, son of founder of Zion City, to leave Chicago. Denies departure is due to criticism.

George Penrose, co-defendant with Mrs. Louise Van Keuren for murder of woman's husband, acquitted by judge's order. Motion to take Mrs. Van Keuren's case from jury overruled.

Mrs. Florence E. Foster granted divorce and $58,150 alimony.

Sol Lewinsohn, fugitive banker, declared to be forger. Mrs. Tiny Johnson, mother of Jack Johnson, claims he forged check for $2,586.

Death of Chloe J. Wright, 818 N. Dearborn st., investigated by coroner. No trace of poisoning.

21 independent aldermanic petitions filed. 14 wards represented.

James Lubelic, 11, 1158 W. 20th pl., hit by auto. Thrown 20 feet. Dead. Driver fled.

J. Wallace, Chicago Heights, knocked down by wagon, internally injured.

Miss Elizabeth Busching, 1961 Evergreen av., struck by street car. Badly bruised.

Frank Koehler, Green Bay, Wis.; Joseph Harper, 420 W. Madison and George Cooper arrested. Alleged to have stolen $1,000 worth of clothing in Waukegan.

Sixty have signed petition to mayor for permit for Bristol Cafe, 6319 S. Halsted st. Opening opposed by Englewood La wand Order League.

George M. Cohan Grand Opera House sued for $50,000. Francis W. McGovern wants damages for personal injury.

I. H. Athey, Athey Hydroaeroplane Co., fined $25. Auto speeding.

Motion to discharge John F. Jelke and 12 associates in oleo fraud trial denied.

Joe Armonda, boy bandit, confessed operation of "Kokomo Gang." Boys sniff cocaine, snatch purses, commit burglaries and hide in movie theaters.

Mrs. William McLeod, Hammond, wants $25,000 from Post Graduate School and Clinic. Claims leg was